From Heav'n You came, help-less babe,
There in the gar-den of tears,
Come see His hands and His feet,
So let us learn how to serve,

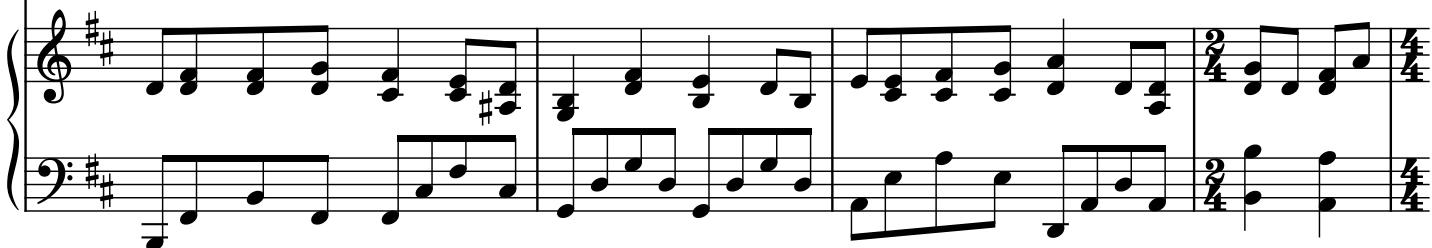

en-tered our world, Your glo - ry veiled;
my hea - vy load He chose to bear;
the scars that speak of sac - ri - fice,
and in our lives en - throne Him;

Not to be served but to serve,
His heart with sor - row was torn,
hands that flung starts in - to space
each oth - er's needs to pre - fer, and give Your life that we might

"Yet not my will, but Yours," He
